

Thomas P. Michelli

Deputy Assistant Commandant for C4IT &
Deputy Chief Information Officer
U.S. Coast Guard

Mr. Thomas P. Michelli currently serves as the Deputy Assistant Commandant for Command, Control, Communications, Computers and Information Technology (C4IT) & Deputy Chief Information Officer for the U. S. Coast Guard.

Mr. Michelli started his career of government service in the U.S. Army Reserve in 1984 after graduating from Franklin University and commissioning from the Ohio State University Army Reserve Officer Training Corps program. He retired from the Army Reserve with the rank of Colonel.

In the private sector, Mr. Michelli served as Director of International IT Operations, and Director and Chief Information Officer, Europe, Middle East and Africa at the global commercial real estate firm Cushman & Wakefield. He also served as Chief Technology Officer, Army Business Unit at General Dynamics Information Technology.

In 2006, Mr. Michelli transitioned to government service as Chief, Information Operations Division for the Defense Threat Reduction Agency. He subsequently joined the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) in several senior leadership roles including the DLA's first Director of Intelligence. He ultimately was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in 2010 and served as DLA's Executive Director of Enterprise Solutions, J64.

Following DLA he was the Chief Information Officer for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in Washington, DC.

His education includes a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a major in Finance from Franklin University, Columbus, Ohio and a Master of Science Degree in Computer Information Systems from St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. His military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal and other meritorious decorations.